How information and communication technologies are used to assist learning

Information and communication technologies (ICT) are an important part of contemporary schooling. The Australian Curriculum includes ICTs as a general capability across all learning areas, as well as Digital Technologies as a specific learning area. Further information on models used by schools to assist learning is available at <https://education.qld.gov.au/parents-and-carers/school-information/student-ict-device-programs/one-to-one-models>.

ICTs are integrated across the curriculum to provide opportunities for student learning. We have a range of devices available for use, including:

- Two computer labs (1 x Apple Mac lab and 1 x Windows lab) providing whole class lesson facilities
- Each class has either networked computers for small group or individual tasks, or a set of iPads that are connected wirelessly to the school network.

To enhance and supplement their learning, students have access to the Learning Place, Mathletics, Reading Eggs, World Book Online, Typing Tournament, Spelling City and many other programs.

Each classroom and learning area has a data projector or Interactive Whiteboard to enable teachers to display work, information and activities. Staff incorporate a range of activities including publishing, data collection, presentations, research, analysis, creation etc., all of which are derived from their curriculum units.

Some classrooms have a BYOD program in place.

Social climate

Overview

Each Queensland state school develops and enacts policies to support an integrated approach to behaviour, learning and teaching.

Our Student Code of Conduct is our school's behaviour policy, with information about school rules, consequences and processes for addressing bullying and the use of technology. A copy of this is available on our school website.

Further information is also available at <https://www.qld.gov.au/education/schools/health>.

Windaroo State School has a safe and supportive environment. The high levels of student and parent satisfaction are demonstrated by our School Opinion Survey results.

An extensive student leadership program is a key feature of our school. Student leaders are elected by the student body. The Student Council meets regularly with the Leadership Team and leads the student body.

Our Big Buddies Program provides student leaders who are extensively trained to support younger students in the playground. These students undertake 5 hours of training in working with others to help them with their problems. Big Buddies are rostered to work each day and provide additional support for students. This program has been highly successful and is appreciated by students, parents and staff.

The Supportive School Environment committee run a range of initiatives to support positive behaviour and anti-bullying strategies. These include the use of the very successful High-5 anti-bullying strategy and 'Behaviour of the Fortnight'.

Parent and community engagement

Our approach to engaging with parents and the community is aligned to the departments Parent and community engagement framework. The framework helps students, schools, parents and the community to work together to maximise student learning and wellbeing. Research shows parent and community engagement that is effectively focused on student learning can deliver powerful outcomes. Further information is available at <https://education.qld.gov.au/parents-and-carers/community-engagement>

Parents play an active and important role in our school community life. Parent helpers can be found in our classrooms each day. Many help in curriculum activities including helping with Rug Reading, home readers or as class helpers.

A Parent Forum is held three times per year with varying topics. This is a consultative model where by parents are given the opportunity to respond via flyer or in person in a forum setting.

Other ways in which parents are partners in our school include canteen volunteers, school banking and P&C. Our P&C plan and host various events throughout the year. These have been highly supported and have opened the doors to even more families in the school getting to know each other creating a real sense of community.

Respectful relationships education programs

Our school has implemented the Respectful relationships education program (RREP) as part of the broad multi-departmental Queensland Government approach to ending domestic and family violence.

The RREP is a Prep to Year 12 prevention program that focuses on influencing behavioural change to build a culture based on equality and respect in our students, staff, parents and wider community, Students are provided opportunities to explore social and emotional learning in self-awareness, self-management, social awareness, relationships, ethics, values, social norms, gender roles, stereotypes, human rights, risk and responsible decision-making. A growing body of evidence shows that social and emotional learning of this nature leads to:

- improved social and emotional skills, self-concept, bonding to school and classroom behaviour
- less disruptive classroom behaviour, aggression, bullying and delinquent acts
- reduced emotional distress such as depression, stress or social withdrawal.

Further information is available at <https://education.qld.gov.au/curriculum/stages-of-schooling/respectful-relationships>

Environmental footprint

Reducing this school's environmental footprint

Environmental education has been a feature of Queensland schools for more than 30 years. In many schools it has been creatively and proactively incorporated into the curriculum in each phase of learning, and is also reflected in the school's facilities and in the actions of its principals, teachers and students.

Table 7: Environmental footprint indicators for this school

Utility category	2016–2017	2017–2018	2018–2019
Electricity (kWh)	257,638	247,856	263,772
Water (kL)	3,138	4,605	4,484

Note:

Consumption data is compiled from sources including ERM, Ergon, CS Energy reports and utilities data entered into OneSchool* by schools. The data provides an indication of the consumption trend in each of the utility categories which impact on this school's environmental footprint.

*OneSchool is the department's comprehensive software suite that schools use to run safe, secure, sustainable and consistent reporting and administrative processes.
